Retreats

New Life Ranch is a great place for churches, youth groups, Christian schools, and other ministry organizations to have retreats and other events.

Summer Camp

NLR campers spend a whole week enjoying a number of activities while building relationships with peers, counselors, and ultimately Jesus Christ.

Leadership Development

This ministry seeks to challenge the lives of campers with new experiences designed to transform them into exceptional leaders for Jesus Christ.

Family Camps

Family Camps at NLR are a great opportunity for entire families to spend quality time together away from the distractions and routines of everyday life.

Outdoor Education

Through science based learning adventures, students from public and private schools learn to see the fingerprints of God in the creation around them.

Community Ministries

Community Ministries at NLR exists to make a connection with children and youth by leading them to Christ and equipping them for challenges in daily life.

Adventure Ministries

Through adventure activities participants gain knowledge about themselves, their relationships with others, and their relationship with God.

New Life Ranch is a valley set apart to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and to equip believers for ministry.

Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; The old has gone, the new has come! II Corinthians 5:17

NLR's Overall Objectives

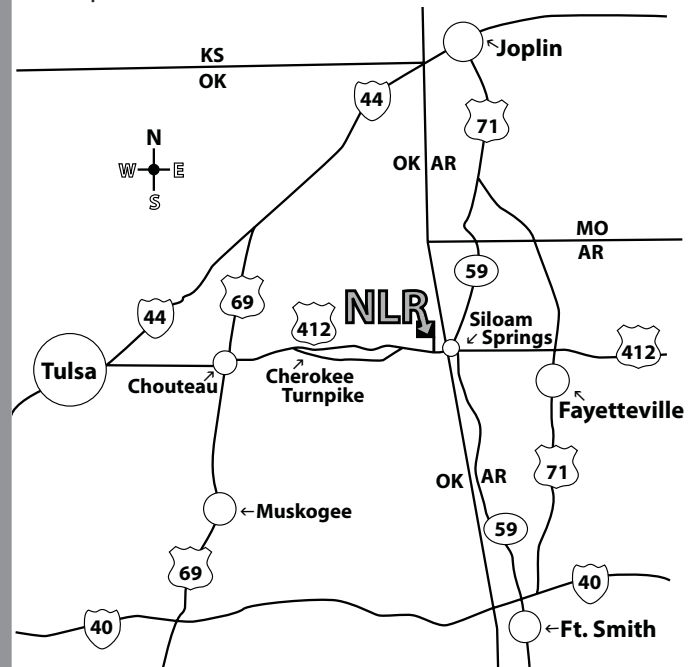

- » A spiritually, emotionally and physically safe place
- » An opportunity and environment for Biblical, spiritual growth
- » An exceptional educational experience

We accomplish this by:

- » Building relationships between campers and our staff
- » Teaching practical Christianity through the active Christian lifestyles of our staff
- » Creating unique programming
- » Providing educationally and spiritually sound materials and activities
- » Providing safe programming
- » Providing quality training and support for staff by NLR leadership

Where is New Life Ranch?

NLR is located in the foothills of the Ozark Mountains of Northeast Oklahoma. People come to NLR from all over, although most of our campers come from Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas and Missouri.

"New Life Ranch is a place where people can meet with God and leave the cares of the world behind."

-David Jaquess, Executive Director
